A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times: "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure every thing?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe it. Physicians recognize it as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in the cure of all diseases. It is, however, a remarkable fact that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the stomach, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. It is a perfect restorative, cures all diseases of the blood, such as Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments it is prescribed daily. It is, however, not a cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

THIRD DAY'S SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

A Communication From the National Farmers' Alliance, Asking for the Formation of a Co-Operative Bureau, is Received—Opposition to Trade Unions.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 7.—When the third day's session of the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor had been called to order this morning, a communication was presented announcing that the National Farmers' Alliance had appointed a committee to confer with the knights with a view to the formation of a co-operative bureau, through which the two bodies could work in harmony. No immediate action was taken on the proposition. The committee says that it does not seek a fusion of the two orders, as by such a course the alliance would lose much of its usefulness with its individuality.

Some of its members are opposed to any deal with the knights, claiming that they are impregnated with Henry Georgism, and that it is the farming community that has to pay the piper for the strikes. The committee has not been authorized to make any definite arrangements for a mutual working of the two bodies, but will report back the result of the conference to the general meeting of the alliance.

The friends of Buchanan, of Chicago, have given up the idea of asking the general assembly to reconsider its action of yesterday by which his credentials were forfeited, but their utterances have lost none of the bitterness which was manifested last night. It is openly charged that not only several members of the general executive board but the grand master workman himself engaged in the fight against the admission and that the word was given out as early as Monday that it was the will of the administration that Buchanan should walk the plank. The vote on the issue is taken as an indication that the application of the New York carpet measure, John Morrison's district, for reinstatement will be treated with scant courtesy by the majority and that the policy of antagonism towards trades unions which Buchanan intends to oppose upon the floor will be continued with more vigor than ever.

As one of the delegates remarked last night: "We have nothing in common with independent trades organizations and for these which will not voluntarily and cannot be made to come within our fold, nothing remains but war."

The floor of the convention has been flooded with circulars issued by the executive board of District Assembly C3, criticizing Powderly and commenting strongly upon some of his published speeches. The press committee says that the convention, so far, has been very harmonious. Mr. Powderly says it has not been anything of the kind, and that he is glad of it, because out and dried conventions never accomplish much. Concerning the conference between Michael Davitt and Powderly, a member of the order has this to say: "The object of Davitt's visit at this time was to try and induce Powderly to pay a visit to Ireland and form a branch of the Knights of Labor, thereby combining the workmen of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. A powerful syndicate will be formed which will tend to wipe out the Orangemen. The order in that country will be secret, and no one will be able to tell whether his neighbor is a knight or not. It is the intention to make Davitt the leader of the order in Ireland, and he will occupy the same place which Powderly does in this country. Of course, they will not be in conjunction with the order on this side of the water, and the government as well as Messrs. Davitt and Powderly understand the inability of the court of St. James to interfere in the matter."

Lady Missionaries Set Sail.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The four young ladies chosen recently by the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of the West, during their last sessions, embarked for their various points of destination abroad this morning. They include Miss Bertha West, of Milwaukee, Wis., who will go to Burma; Miss Amy Harris, of Winterest, Iowa, who will accompany and labor with her; Miss Lavinia Meade, of Lu Verne, Minn., who is assigned to Ongole, India, and Miss Elma Simons, of Lodi, Wis., who goes to Toungou, Burma. They are accompanied by Miss Charlotte Purcell, of Boston, who will engage in missionary work in Assam, India, and by Miss Nellie Fife, of Minneapolis, who goes to Sendell, Japan.

She Gave Mrs. Cleveland a Panache.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—A remarkable incident occurred at the fair grounds during the president's visit that had a sequel yesterday morning in the police court. While the president's carriage was driving by one of the booths Mrs. Cleveland was startled and surprised by the sudden appearance of hot panache in her lap. She had been used to receiving bouquets in that manner, but the hot panache was something she was unprepared for. The police arrested the cake maker, Annie Sax, a comely young cook in the booth. She explained in court that something impelled her to hit Mrs. Cleveland with a panache. A continuance was granted for a week.

Looks Like Blackmail.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 7.—The story that John Kemper, who until recently had lived in Denver had written a letter confessing to the murder of his father in Cincinnati in 1885, is discredited here. It is reported his sister is about to be married, and if any letter has been written, those who are acquainted with the case believe it was for the purpose of getting money from her. Young Kemper thinking his sister would be willing to pay him liberally rather than have the scandal just at the time of her marriage.

George Francis Train Leaves New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—George Francis Train talked two hours last night to an audience of twenty people, mostly reporters, in a hall at No. 16 Clinton place. He said it was the last time he should speak here. He was going to Chicago to be shot.

THE FIRE RECORD.

A Cincinnati Art Store and Frame Factory Destroyed—Other Losses.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—The P. Reuhl building on Main street, south of Seventh, a six story structure of brick and stone, occupied by the P. Reuhl Molding company, picture frame manufacturers, is a mass of ashes and barren walls this morning. Fire started in the fifth floor of the building, and was first observed at 8:30 Wednesday evening. A call was turned in, followed quickly by a second alarm. The fire spread with lightning rapidity in the inflammable material, varnishes, oils and seasoned woods, which filled the building from basement to top. The three upper floors were completely gutted, and all the contents destroyed by the fire. The stock on the lower floors was ruined by water.

On the sixth floor was a large stock of looking-glasses. On the fifth floor, where the fire started, was the finishing shop, filled with oils and varnishes. The first floor was used as the storeroom, and about $15,000 worth of engravings on this floor escaped injury. On the third floor were the valuable moldings; these were ruined by water. The loss in this stock alone was $15,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The officers of the Reuhl company, which owned stock and building, are P. Reuhl, president; E. H. Austerlitz, vice president; Ed. F. Well, secretary and treasurer.

A large crowd surrounded the vicinity of the fire, and quite a number were injured by falling debris. Pipemau Jim Larkin, of the Sixes, fell fifteen feet through a skylight, hurting himself severely. Charles Woelcher, a druggist adjoining the burning building, will lose about $300 in stock damaged by the water. Insured.

The damaged stock was this morning removed to the warehouses of Hurst & Machendorf, 319 and 321 Main street.

Stenger, Boyd & Co., manufacturers of shoes, occupying the floors over the drugstore, lost $25.

Mr. Reuhl, president of the company, estimated the loss as follows: On building, $10,000; stock, machinery and office fixtures, $36,000. Total $46,000. On this there is an insurance of $20,000 in Law & Gansell's agency.

Distillery Destroyed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A fire broke out this morning in Ephraim Howe's distillery at 118 and 120 Elm street. The building is three stories high and of brick, and was filled with valuable spirits. The whole stock was destroyed despite the efforts of the firemen to save it, and within an hour the distillery was in ashes. The loss on the building is $25,000, and on the stock of spirits $150,000. There were several narrow escapes, but no casualties. The watchman in the building was compelled to jump from a window. A crowded tenement adjoins the distillery on one side and a hotel on the other. Both of these were cleared in the briefest possible time; the police speeding the tenants, who were in a state of wild excitement.

Ohio Masons.

ST. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 7.—The Grand Lodge of Masons of Ohio, including the grand chapter and grand council, met in session in this city yesterday, with fully four hundred delegates present from all parts of the state. The grand chapter met in the forenoon and transacted a large amount of business, and in the afternoon the grand council held its meeting. The grand officers will be elected to-day. Last night a brilliant reception, banquet and ball were given the visiting Masons by the order which proved to be one of the greatest social events that has ever occurred here. At the banquet toasts were responded to by J. H. L. Long, of Ottawa, O.; D. M. Winegarner, of Newark; James Munger and James E. Hill, of Steubenville, and Charles Keifer, of Cleveland. Over three hundred couples took part in the grand ball.

Government Fish Planting.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 7.—The United States fish commission car No. 2 passed through this city yesterday morning, in charge of Mr. G. H. H. Moore. The car was being sent from Washington to Kansas City. It had on board 20,000 carp and a few gold eyes and trout. These are to be distributed in streams in Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and Arkansas. On its return trip the car will be placed on exhibition at the Kansas City exposition. Mr. Moore stated that they had just completed a four of Virginia. The old plan of stocking the stream with fry has been abandoned, and instead fish of from two to six inches are placed in the streams.

Minister Manning Resigns.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Judge Thomas C. Manning, minister to Mexico, has resigned. Judge Manning is in New York and his resignation is in the state department. It will be remembered that last winter while in Mexico, Judge Manning was said to have imbibed rather freely, the affair causing a great deal of newspaper talk. His nomination was then before the senate, and it is said that his friends went before the committee and said that if Mr. Manning was confirmed he would resign at an early date. The resignation now sent in is declared to be the fulfillment of that promise.

Harrison Monument Resolution.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—At the close of the services at North Bend, Wednesday, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, That the members of congress representing the states of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and the great northwest are hereby earnestly requested to ask the congress of the United States to appropriate a suitable sum for the purpose of erecting a shaft over the tomb of Gen. W. H. Harrison, at North Bend, O."

The Greenback Nominee.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

SERIOUS COMPLAINT MADE AGAINST THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

English, French and Russian Travelers Say That Their Letters Have Been Tampered With While Passing Through Germany—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Whether there be anything in the atmosphere of Berlin tending to arouse suspicion in the minds of foreigners temporarily resident in the German capital, or whether the German government has at its service an ingeniously constituted system of espionage there is of course no means of ascertaining, but the fact remains that complaints to that effect from different sources have been published within the last few days in the journals of various European capitals.

A. M. Schumoff writes to the Journal at St. Petersburg that his footsteps were constantly dogged while he was in the German capital, his purchases noted and his correspondence put under the closest surveillance. Several letters that were written to him from Warsaw and Moscow never reached him. All the letters which were permitted to come to his hand during his stay he is positive had been opened before being forwarded to his hotel.

An English gentleman writes to the Times that when he first arrived at the German capital, where he spent some time, a French daily paper to which he had subscribed reached him with unfailing regularity except on the mornings on which there were letters for him in the same mail.

On these days both papers and letters were several hours late, and he was informed upon lodging a complaint with the postal authorities that the delay was caused in each case by the failure of the French train to make its regular connection at Cologne, although he found the French papers had arrived at the cafes at the normal hour. After about three weeks' sojourn at Berlin, however, there were no more such eccentricities in his mail service, which change in the state of his affairs he attributes to the possible circumstance that the authorities had ascertained that he was not a conspirator or a person in any other way inimical to the welfare of the empire of Germany.

Of course the experience of a Frenchman in Berlin would not fall behind those of other visitors there, and a complainant writing to the Gaulois more than insinuates that his correspondence during a recent brief stay in that city was tampered with if not for the detection of the Prussian officials for that of Prince Bismarck himself. This writer revenges his supposed wrongs by depicting in picturesque language the life of the German youth at the universities, their orgies, their gross ignorance, their idleness and brutality, and their lack of fealty and common honesty, which promise degeneracy and ultimate downfall of the Teutonic empire through the future entrance of these ruffians into the service of the state. Such revenge as this writer takes would scarcely compensate an Englishman or American for the wrong committed, but to a Frenchman, when a German is the offender, it is amply sufficient.

Turned Queen's Evidence.

DUBLIN, Oct. 7.—Collins, the moonlighter, who turned queen's evidence, was taken to Ennis yesterday under a heavy police escort, to give testimony against the murderers of Whelan. The informer testified that there had been a plot against Farmer Sexton, and that he had been party to the conspiracy. He identified seven of the prisoners as having been concerned in the murder of Whelan. The witness also admitted having planned moonlight raids in Kerry and Clare, and acknowledged that he had been in the pay of the police for the last five years, although professing loyalty to his companions, who trusted him implicitly. Just before the raid on Sexton's house he had received a small sum of money from Constable Whelan, in payment for the part he had taken in arranging the raid. This statement created a tremendous sensation. When the prisoners were returned to jail they were loudly cheered by the crowd, and the police were compelled to use their batons freely to prevent the crowd from closing in upon them.

A Stupendous Project.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—A plan has been submitted by Admiral Cloué to the minister of public works for the construction of a bridge across the English channel at Calais. The bridge is to be similar to the Niagara suspension bridge and made of iron. There will be passenger ways and a place for railroad tracks. The structure, if built, will extend from the Dover Heights to the hill at the back of Calais, enabling ships and steamers to pass underneath without difficulty.

Gifts to the Pope.

ROME, Oct. 7.—Klopp, the German historian, presents the pope with the complete correspondence between Leopold I and Father Marco Daviaho; the pope's legate, during the Turkish invasion of 1563. To each of the sovereigns who sent jubilee gifts the pope will present a specially painted miniature portrait of himself. The pope is specially pleased with Queen Victoria's gift, and his acknowledgment will be exceptionally cordial.

Sultan of Morocco Still Alive.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Standard's correspondent at Madrid, in an interview with Senor Moret, the Spanish foreign minister, was assured that Spain had a desire to maintain the status quo in Morocco, subject to non-interference by any other power. Senor Moret officially confirmed the reports of the official condition of the sultan, whose death is hourly expected.

Riot Among Cigar-makers.

MADRID, Oct. 7.—Several thousand female cigar-makers gathered at one of the factories yesterday and engaged in a riot. The civil guard surrounded the factory. The women took possession of the building, barricaded it, and still hold it.

Many People Killed.

MOSCOW, Oct. 7.—Workmen in a cotton mill at Klin raised a riot yesterday and set fire to the factory, which was destroyed. Many persons were killed. Troops were sent to restore order. The cause of the riot is not stated.

M'CABE AGAIN RESPITED.

Nevel Grounds Pleaded in a Petition—He May Not Hang After All.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 7.—Murderer McCabe wants Governor Beaver to grant him another respite for a novel reason. McCabe escaped from jail in May and was not recaptured until a few weeks ago. While he was at liberty, a fugitive from justice, the governor was compelled to respite him in order that when captured again all the law requirements would have been carried out. McCabe yesterday, through his attorney, Mr. Dimmick, filed a petition with the governor asking for a respite on the ground that at the time the sentence of hanging should have been executed he was not in the jurisdiction of the court, and the respite was illegally and unlawfully issued, and that the dates for the hanging were illegally fixed by the governor.

Mr. Dimmick yesterday afternoon made an argument before the governor, asking that a respite be granted until McCabe's legal rights can be established. Later Governor Beaver granted the murderer a respite until November 16. The prisoner was overjoyed when he received the news, and said: "Well, there is hope!" All preparations had been made for the execution to-day.

The Telegraph Deal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Telegraph prints the following: "The fever of suspense in street circles was allayed at last by the announcement that the Western Union executive committee would meet at 11:30 o'clock to discuss the Baltimore & Ohio contract, and will ratify it at another meeting to be held to-morrow. The contract has been signed, and it only requires action on the part of the Western Union directors to make it official." Upon being shown the foregoing Dr. Green, president of the Western Union company, said that a meeting of the executive committee was held at noon, but he declined to say whether or not the Baltimore & Ohio deal was under discussion. He added, however, that it was decided at the meeting that no statement of the committee's work should be made for publication. Another officer of the company said that he was not at liberty to speak of what was done at to-day's meeting, but he hoped that when the proper time came and the company had completed all of its arrangements it would follow the example of the syndicate that purchased the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and make a clear cut statement of its transactions.

A Disabled Ship.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 7.—Capt. W. Arnold, of the schooner Lilly, of Bridgewater, England, which arrived here Tuesday from Cadiz, brings the following memorandum from Capt. B. Granges, of the steamer Renpor, of West Hartlepool, which he spoke to on September 13, in the position mentioned below: "Please report me at your first port of call. Our engines are disabled and rendered useless. The ship is fore and aft rigged and it is impossible to do anything with her under canvas. Nine days have elapsed since she broke down. We are now in latitude 35 deg., 31 min. north, and longitude 32 deg., 18 min. west." The Renpor is a ship of 1,274 tons register. Her cargo consists of 2,300 tons of copper ore and 500 tons of bunker coal.

An Amateur Actress' Antics.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—Josephine Miller, an amateur actress and public reader of high reputation, has been arrested on the charge of stealing property from the residence of the Rev. Julian Smyth at Boston Highlands. During the summer vacation he let his residence to Miss Miller. The family returned home and found their house vacated and over $200 worth of bric-a-brac and house furnishings missing. There were dozens of empty wine bottles left behind, and soon bills came in for several cases of champagne which had been charged to the clergyman. He made inquiry of his neighbors and the police and learned that the house had been every night the scene of the wildest revelry, which lasted usually until sunrise.

Don't Like the Catholics.

READING, Pa., Oct. 7.—The National Grand Lodge of the Junior American Protestant association adjourned yesterday morning after adopting resolutions condemning the action of the Pittsburg school board in electing a Catholic priest as principal of Monongahela public school, and declaring that "The Catholic church is secretly and insidiously at work establishing herself in our midst for the destruction of that most glorious privilege, liberty of conscience, which to preserve inviolate should be the purpose of Protestant citizenship and Protestant Christianity."

Inspecting the New Navy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Secretary Whitney visited the Brooklyn navy yard yesterday. He arrived a couple of hours ahead of the time he was expected, and thus defeated Admiral Gherardi's plan to tender him a reception. On reaching the yard he went on board the Miantonomah, made a brief inspection of the new steel cruiser Chicago, which is to soon have her dock trial, took a general survey of the yard, and was on his way back to New York in a half an hour. Few officers of the yard were aware of the secretary's visit until after his departure.

Dakota's Convention.

FARGO, Dak., Oct. 7.—At the territorial division convention Tuesday, thirteen counties were represented. Strong resolutions were adopted endorsing the plan of securing an expression of opinion on the subject of division by vote at the November election; demanding of congress the admission of Dakota as two states, urging the people of North Dakota to go to the polls and vote on the issue.

Henry George Attacked.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Star publishes a violent personal attack upon Henry George, accusing him of about all the crimes and misdemeanors that a man can commit. His career in California, as pictured by the Star, would seem to indicate an apathy on the part of his legal authorities of that state in having permitted him to exist at all.

MHI Boiler Explodes.

AMANDA, O., Oct. 7.—The boiler in the saw mill of David Young, three miles northwest of here, exploded yesterday killing George Lape, Perry Lape, Simon Young and Amos Young, and injuring Mrs. Simon Young seriously, who at the time was 200 feet from the mill. Cause unknown, as every one at the mill was killed.

"We see the statement made," says an exchange, "that the taxes paid into the National Treasury during the month of September averaged over $1,000,000 a day. More than one-half of this amount is not needed by the Government, and is, therefore, taken from the pockets of the people in excessive taxes under a prolonged war tariff at the rate of $670,000 a day, $4,900,000 a week, nearly $19,000,000 a month and $228,000,000 a year."

We see by the Brown Co. Democrat there are several aspirants for the Justiceship here next spring. Although early, from what we can understand, the light promises to be warm one, and Squire Bessey, the present incumbent, will have to keep his weather eye open on the boys.

Matt Ellis, representing the wholesale druggists, Hale, Justice & Co., of Cincinnati, was interviewing our druggists Thursday, and took a large order for goods. AN OFFENSIVE BREATH is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he has any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. Dillard Cooper, of Minneapolis, formerly of Covington. The Enquirer says: "The handsome residence was tastefully and profusely ornamented with flowers and tropical plants, and with the elegant-attired guests, presented a very enchanting appearance."

"The ceremony was performed in the large parlor, in the presence of one hundred guests, by the Rev. Dr. W. H. Felix, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Covington. There were no attendants save Mr. Ed. Ernst and Mr. J. E. Lippencott, who acted as ushers. The bride was dressed in white satin, richly trimmed in pearl-beaded lace, and wore diamond ornaments. The bride is the only daughter of the late lamented Willie Black, formerly of Mason County, and is one of the most charming of all Covington young ladies. After the ceremony came the reception, which was one of the most elegant that has been held in Covington for years. The supper was served by Echert, and, during the evening, music was discoursed by Professor Michael's Band.

"The young couple received a large number of elegant presents. They left Thursday morning on a bridal tour through the principal Eastern cities, and on their return will reside at Minneapolis, where the groom is engaged in business.

"Among the guests present were Dr. and Mrs. John M. Frazee and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Burgess, of Mayville; Mr. Matt Worthington, Miss Sue Worthington and Miss Gertrude Worthington, of Fern Leaf, Ky."

Stock and Crops.

The fruit crop is the shortest for years.

Charlie Hogan, the trotter, beat Johnston, the pacer, at Pittsburg, in 2:11, 2:13, 2:16.

Dwyer Bros.' celebrated stallion, Tremont, arrived here the other day and will winter at Runnymede, and remain in the stud next season.—Bourbon News.

The Coughlin brothers have thirty acres of Mason County's best tobacco this season. One-half of it, we understand, measures thirty-nine by twenty-four inches.

The lambs offered in the Eastern market arrive first from Virginia, shortly after the flocks from Kentucky send forward their quota, then occasional drafts are received from Tennessee.

A citizen of San Diego, Cal., talks of a grape-vine from which he picked in one season over a thousand pounds of fruit. These grapes yielded 123 gallons of wine, which retailed to druggists at two dollars per gallon, making $246 from the single vine.

Times are not half so hard as us poor mortals would make it appear. The corn and tobacco crops are both much better than was first supposed, there was a fair wheat crop and an unusual amount of live stock on hand. Verily, to take it all around, times are about the same this year as last.—Robertson County Democrat.

"The exports of wheat," says the Commercial Gazette, "for the year ending June 30, 1887, were about 155,000,000 bushels; with a smaller crop this year and a smaller surplus of old wheat on hand at the opening of the year, we are not likely to have more than 125,000,000 bushels available for export during the current year, and having exported over 35,000,000 bushels of this in two months, there remains only 90,000,000 bushels for export during the remaining ten months, an average outgo of 9,000,000 bushels per month would exhaust this supply. There is certainly no good reason why our farmers should be obliged to accept lower prices for wheat than they did last year."

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, September 19, 1887, Annie Craven, daughter of Thomas Craven, aged twenty-three years.

Celestial hope, thy swift flight earthward winging
How sorrow's clouds before thy sheen unroll!
How glows the dawn of light eternal, bringing Joy's beauteous visions to the faithful soul!

We call not dead the dearly-crowned of heaven,
But spirits ransomed from a world of care;
'Tis sweet to know tho' earthly bonds are riven,
Faith leads our way by golden links of prayer.

Yet Grief may rear in human hearts an altar,
While memory there each word and deed enshrines
Where faded duty never known to falter
In starry splendor o'er the off'ring shines.

There is no flower in all the soul's fair garden
Divinely rare as angel-fostered love,
No note so sweet in all earth's tones of gladness
As song of home to weary plighted dove.

So wakes she now above this world of pleading,
'Mid glories dreamed of while on earth she trod,
With soul grown rich because of manna feeding,
With footsteps sure because she walked with God.

The Trade in Old Hats.

"Anny auld hats! Anny auld hats!" This cry may be heard every day in this city, and many are disposed to pity the ragged old merchants who wander along giving it utterance. Yet these itinerant hatters are not so much to be pitied after all. Many of the hats they carry along in a bag over their shoulders have cost them nothing, while the residue have been purchased for a pittance. There is a market for old hats in New York, and a large one, too. There are several wholesale dealers in the trade whose yearly profits make a considerable figure. One of these men has an establishment in a cellar. He may be seen every day sitting on a stool at the head of the steep steps leading to his store—an old man, shabbily dressed, with wrinkled, leathery features, and thin, long, gray hair straggling over stooping shoulders.

"This is a pretty good stand for a retail business in old hats," he said to a reporter, "for right yonder on the Rialto I have many customers. Almost every day a score of busted actors come here to be fitted out in new head gear. They usually trade off their old hats with a 'quarter' or a 'half' thrown in, and I fit them out in killing shape. Actors are my best retail patrons. I do a wholesale business also, but that is mostly in trading off a lot of hats with some other dealer. I will buy, sell, trade or barter with any one who wants to deal with me."

"What style of hat brings you the largest profit?"

"High silk hats are most desirable. No matter how battered they are when brought here I can find a place for 'em."

"How much do you pay for old hats?"

"That depends upon how many there are, and who brings them here. I would rather buy from a walking merchant than from any one else. I know they don't pay much and can sell cheap. An old high silk hat is worth about fifteen or twenty cents, an old derby about eight or ten cents, and an old straw hat five cents. These, when revamped, will bring a profit of about 100 to 150 per cent."—New York Mail and Express.

Decline in the Use of Flags.

The exhibition of 1881, that was to inaugurate the new era of world peace, for the first time introduced the flag in a new character. Then began the flinging of central avenues and side courts, the trophies for bazars, fetes and fancy fairs; and then, too, when the powerful dramatic faculty of Dickens for the first time made theatricals fashionable, then, too, were seen processions and lecture halls, galleries and columns flaunting with stars and stripes and tricolors, and double headed eagles—in fact, nowadays we have no flag to speak of in any other than the decorative shape. If to-morrow we were to fight with France, we doubt if throughout the whole campaign one solitary Union would be visible. Soon there will be no more colors hanging in cathedral aisles, for nowadays they are never ventured near the fighting arena, indeed, stored at home before the fighting begins. And war, which has so fast been losing its pomp and pageantry, loses in its color one feature the more. During the whole of the fighting in the Sudan the only touch of bunting visible was the small red flag carried by a military policeman after the general, to let the staff know his whereabouts.—Cornhill Magazine.

The Fastest Railroad Work.

Our Boston contemporaries are announcing with large head lines that thirteen miles of track have been laid in eleven days on the Massachusetts road, adding that this is "the fastest railroad work ever done in the country." Our New England friends probably never saw or heard of the track laying exploits on a score or more of western roads, where from two to five and even seven miles a day of track have been laid down. At the present time one road in Manitoba is pushing its track westward at the rate of from four to five miles a day, having last week put down twenty-two miles in five and a half days. The Massachusetts performance of thirteen miles of track in eleven days would not be considered worth record; out in the wild and untamed west.—Railway Age.

Present from Queen Kapiolani.

Boston, Oct. 7.—Queen Kapiolani has honored several Boston citizens by presenting them with beautiful decorations. Among them are Mayor O'Brien, Councilmen Donovan and Whallen, and Governor Ames. His excellency and Mayor O'Brien received the Order of Grand Officers, and Messrs. Donovan and Whallen were made Knight Commanders. Besides the diplomas the insignia of the order was sent to each. These are elegant badges of gold, silver and jewels, hanging on red and yellow ribbons. They are in the form of a Maltese cross and surmounted by crown. The diplomas bear the signature: "Kalakaua Rex."

Victims of the Lake Disaster.

MACKINAW CITY, Mich., Oct. 7.—A hand satchel and trunk picked up on the beach identifies the young lady passenger who was lost in the wreck of the California as Minnie Mennery, of Saoketts Harbor, N. Y. Miss Mennery and Cornelius Conderton, of Detroit, were the only passengers drowned. Several of the crew were drowned. The body of Xavier Dant, a deck hand, washed ashore two miles above here. Bodies of eight of the victims have washed ashore at Cecil bay and McGulphins point. Among these are those of the pursers, chambermaid, and Miss Mennery.

United Labor Inspectors of Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The 812 United Labor inspectors of election were sworn in yesterday by Police Commissioner McClave and Superintendent O'Brien, of the bureau of elections. The question of the legality of the appointment of these inspectors is pending in the courts, there being a dead-lock in the police board over the matter, and the above mentioned action is regarded by many as in contempt of court.

Vessel Owners and Captains.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—Charles Lawrence, of Philadelphia, was yesterday re-elected president of the Vessel Owners and Captains' association at the annual meeting in this city. The association resolved to suspend the existing rate of freight rule and to continue its efforts for the abolition of compulsory pilotage.

Count Mittlewieser's Scheme Stopped.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A dispatch from London to the Evening Sun says the British government has received advice that the Viceroy Li Hung Chang has notified Count Mittlewieser that he cannot carry out the proposed arrangement with American capitalists.

The Report Denied.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—Wharton Barker, representing the American-Chinese syndicate, denies that Li Hung Chang has cabled any repudiation of the Mittlewieser concession.

Especially to Women.
"Sweet is revenge especially to women," said the gifted, but naughty, Lord Byron. Surely he was in bad humor when he wrote such words. But there are complaints that only women suffer, that are carrying numbers of them down to early graves. There is hope for those who suffer, no matter how sorely, or severely, in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Safe in its action it is a blessing, especially to women and to men, too, for when women suffer, the household is askew.

Mr. Wood thought the Alms Committee was distributing too much money outside of the alms house, and a warm discussion ensued. The members of the Committee defended their action and said they would be only too glad if the Council would limit the city's alms to persons in the alms house; but they thought in this case two or three alms houses would be needed.

The Committee on Claims recommended the third quarterly payment of the salaries of the city officers.

Committee on Internal Improvement reported that the work done the past month by prisoners outside of the station house, and rock broken in the station house amounted to $187.62.

Marshal Hefflin had notified the fire companies about keeping engines in order. The Washington's and Neptune's are in good condition, but the Amazon engine needed some repairs. He also reported that the public clatters were in bad repair and should be attended to at once. The one at Third and Limestone was reported in dangerous condition.

Repairs to gutter on Third street were reported completed, as was also the fill and culvert on Poplar street.

Committee on Internal Improvement reported that the work of macadamizing Forest avenue was being done by city prisoners.

Several bids were read for draining the pond on south side of Second street extension. The committee was authorized to contract with S. B. Oldham for the work at his bid of $212.50, same being considered the lowest and best.

The matter of laying gutter on Front street from Grave alley to Wall street was continued in hands of committee, as was also the matter of supervising the cutting down of Shultz street.

The gas lamp at Third and Walnut streets was reported completed.

It was ordered that a gas lamp be erected at the head of Market street, and the Committee on Gas was instructed to see that the work is done. The gas lamp in alley at Magnolia Mills was ordered removed at city's expense.

King & Fitzgerald, railroad contractors, who are cutting down and grading West Third street, applied for permission to make light blasts to aid in furthering the work. On motion of Mr. Thomas the permission was granted as far as the city has any right in the matter. There was some opposition to the matter, and a motion was made to table the question, but it was lost.

Simon M. Crowell was granted permission to erect a two-story frame cottage and on buildings on south side of Third street between Third and Walnut.

Permission was granted William Cooper to erect a frame residence on Fourth street, in the Fifth ward.

A permit was given J. M. Moore to lay street crossing at his grocery on Fleming pike.

Captain C. M. Holloway appeared in behalf of the Cincinnati, Portsmouth and Big Sandy Packet Company and the river interests in general, and asked for a reduction of wharfage for his company. The claim was made that the charges were excessively high as compared with the business done and the rates elsewhere. Captain Holloway stated his company had paid Maysville $7,000 wharfage in the past three years. He presented statements showing that at no other point along their line did they pay as high as they did here. They would soon have to compete with a big railroad, and they wanted to prepare for low rates.

Wharfmaster Phister appeared on behalf of the river interests. He said the Pittsburgh companies had always remonstrated against the exorbitant rates. He presented a statement from the Andes, showing a comparison of the wharfage charged and amount of business done at all principal cities from Wheeling to Cincinnati. The charges at Maysville were much higher than at any other city mentioned. The matter was referred to the Committee on Wharves and Ferries with instructions to confer with Captain Holloway. They were to meet that gentleman this morning, and the probability is that the wharfage will be reduced.

The term of the City Attorney having expired, O. D. Newell and C. L. Sallee were placed in nomination. A ballot was taken and resulted in Mr. Newell's election, the vote standing nine to five. Mr. Sallee's name was presented without his knowledge or consent. The salary is $50 a year with 30 per cent. of fines where he prosecutes.

A communication was read from C. L. Stanton calling attention to the condition of Walnut street at a point near the river bank, and claiming it would be impossible to protect his property unless said street was repaired. A motion was made to refer the matter to the Committee on Internal Improvements. This was vigorously opposed by Mr. Wood, who intimated that it was a move to compromise the city in the suit now pending for damages caused by the washing away of Front street at that point. The motion was carried.

A claim of W. H. Cox of $12 for cleaning "potters' field" and filling up old graves was referred to Alms Committee.

A bill for work in Patton alley sewer amounting to $20.70, in favor of Levi Fleming, William Brawner and M. Chisholm, was ordered paid.

The Treasurer was ordered to pay King & Fitzgerald $100 of the $200 the city agreed to allow them for grading West Third street.

W. L. Moran was granted auctioneer's license.

Ficklin Bros. were allowed $1.50 for passage of pauper to Paris.

Mr. Wood moved that the Committee on Finance call upon the Railroad Guarantors for a statement of what had been done with the $60,000 aid, the city had voted to the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad. He said it was the understanding this money was to be refunded to the city if the other subscriptions were sufficient to pay for the right-of-way required. If the city, however, had to pay this sum, it was time Council should know it, so that some provisions might be made for meeting the debt. The motion was carried.

Committee on Ways and Means was authorized to borrow any funds needed before next meeting.

An iron crossing was ordered placed over the gutter at Third and Market, west side.

Marshal was directed to collect auction commissions from A. R. Glascock.

The expense of sending L. T. McMullen to his son's in an upper county was ordered paid.

CHICAGO TO MILWAUKEE.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY ARRIVES IN THE CREAM CITY.

International Encampment Visited by the President in the Morning Before Leaving Chicago—Milwaukee's Decoration in Honor of the Great Event.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Swarms of people again filled all the approaches to the Palmer house this morning eagerly watching for a glimpse of President Cleveland when he should emerge for a drive to the International military encampment. Crowds of workmen and shop girls on the way to their daily tasks, forgot for the time being the toll before them and pressed forward through the jam of country people and well dressed city sight-seers.

A half dozen mounted police had no little trouble clearing a passage for the president's carriage, which was drawn by four spanking bays. The sky was lowering, and everyone was predicting rain would fall before the president could make a start. Not a drop fell, however, and at 8:45 Mr. Cleveland, looking but little the worse for his wholesale handshaking of the previous day, appeared at the arched doorway. With hat doffed, and many a good natured bow to the cheering crowd, he lightly sprang into the waiting carriage, and in a trice was whirling through the thick of the business district and out Washington boulevard, to the encampment. He was accompanied by Mayor Roche, Gen. Terry and a dozen lesser dignitaries. Early as it was, and threatening as was the day, the sidewalks along the entire route were lined with people, including thousands who, notwithstanding strenuous all day and evening efforts yesterday, had failed to see the president or his wife in the general confusion prevailing.

The party attracted attention from the cavalcade of police preceding it, but had this not advertised the character of the people who were being driven behind it would scarcely have been suspected. As it was there were little demonstrations at several street intersections along the route, but they had hardly time to materialize before the bowing and smiling man in the front carriage was lost to view.

A ludicrous incident occurred at the entrance to the encampment grounds. The president's carriage got stuck in the mud. There was not a moment's time to spare, and the prancing bays were smartly lashed with the whip. It was nip and tuck with the mud that was made thick and sticky by rain during the night. Finally the vehicle containing the chief magistrate of the nation gave a terrific lunge forward and was gone from the laughing, cheering crowd.

A rapid drive past the 2,000 or 3,000 troops drawn up in line, a thundering salute from the artillery, and bows and smiles to the couple of thousand spectators in the stands, completed the ceremonies at the encampment. Without delay the president boarded a train for the depot down town, from which the start for Milwaukee was made. It lacked but five minutes of 10 o'clock, the scheduled time of the start for Milwaukee, when he arrived.

Mrs. Cleveland had preceded him by half an hour, slipping quietly into a carriage at the hotel, and being driven to the depot comparatively unobserved. The hundreds of spectators crowding the waiting rooms when she arrived had grown to thousands in the short interval before the president came.

Behind the long railings on the platform, parallel with the presidential train, it seemed like the quarter stretch on Derby day, so closely packed and thoroughly excited were the people. Mrs. Cleveland gazed out from the window of her car with decided interest, that heightened when the president stepped from the incoming train on an adjoining track and briskly walked to her side. At once a chorus of entreaties went up for them to come out on the platform.

"We want to see Mrs. Cleveland," and "Three cheers for Grover," were the cries. When Mrs. Cleveland, in her green traveling dress, and the president, with his head uncovered, appeared at the rear door of the train, a mighty cheer rolled through the depot. Just then the train began to move, and a burst of sunshine lit up the scene, and while the multitude yelled itself hoarse the president and his fair young wife waved a farewell to Chicago.

At Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 7.—The president's train arrived here at 1:30. There was a great crowd at the station, and the enthusiasm was intense. The city is handsomely decorated for the president's reception, the most elaborate arch being that in front of the rooms of the Juneau club, a Democratic institution. Other arches along the line of procession are erected at the corner of South Water and Ferry streets, and at Read and Lake streets. The west side of the court house, where the mayor formally welcomed the president to the city is entirely covered with red, white and blue, and a platform extends to the curb. Schlitz park and the mouth of the Milwaukee river are decorated in the best of taste, no money having been spared to procure the most artistic effects possible. The public reception will be held here. Flags are displayed on all public buildings, and the chamber of commerce, depots, wholesale houses and other places along the route of the parade which promise to be a very extensive one, are elaborately decorated.

The exposition building has been beautifully decorated and extensive arrangements have been made by the management for the entertainment of the presidential visitors. At 4 o'clock, while the public reception was in progress at Schlitz park, the committee having in hand the entertainment of Mrs. Cleveland departed from the park and drove directly to the exposition, where the lady visited for a half hour. At about 6:30 the president and escort reached the exposition and made a brief tour of the different departments. While the president was there there was a brilliant pyrotechnical display on the Fifth street side of the exposition building. Among the elegant pieces made for the occasion by a Cincinnati firm was the colossal portrait of the president and his wife.

Killed His Captors and Escaped.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 7.—A special from Tahlequah, Indian Territory, last evening, says: "Last night Deputy United States Marshal Phillips and posse, arrested Henry M. Kizait, a full blooded Chickasaw, eighteen years of age, near Eufaula. Not being able to reach town during the evening, the party camped on the prairie, with the exception of Phillips, who rode on ahead. After waiting until noon yesterday for the arrival of the guards and prisoner, he rode back and found the entire posse of three killed, their heads having been cut off while they slept. Legs and branches from a fire were piled on top of them and the greater part of their bodies was consumed. A pool of blood indicated that all had been killed by an axe while sleeping, as the three heads severed from their bodies were lying as they rested. The prisoner who did the deed escaped.

Probing by Electricity.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A successful experiment was made yesterday at Bellevue hospital with a telephonic probe for the location of bullets. A small steel plate was placed on the subject's leg. To one end of this was attached an insulated wire, connected with a telephone receiver, which in turn was connected with another wire, at the end of which was a probing needle. This needle was inserted in the wound and an electric current established. The needle was pushed in through the wound until a slight clicking sound, heard by the operating surgeon, who held the receiver at his ear, notified him that the current had been broken by the needle touching the bullet sought for. Further probing showed that the bullet had been correctly located in the man's liver.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The Smith Carpet company of this city has discharged a large number of its employees, many of them being women. On Tuesday nearly one hundred and fifty were laid off, and yesterday others were dismissed. It is observed that nearly all of those sent away are persons who were active in the last carpet shop strike.
